Homophone Worksheet 3.9

Here are 10 sentences that are missing pairs or groups of homophones. Your task is to work out which homophones complete each sentence, then fill the gaps with the correct set of homophones in the correct places.

1. The student who could remember the value of _____ to the most decimal places would be rewarded with a slice of _____.

2. She _____ that the _____ movie was due to come out this weekend.

3. He was really _____ with playing the same _____ games all the time.

4. The campers started to feel _____ as it was getting dark and they still hadn't put up their _____.

5. He decided that this weekend he _____ chop up some _____ for their log fire.

6. The butcher went to _____ the farmer from whom he buys his _____.

7. The athlete managed to leap a distance of 30 _____ in the long jump which was a world record _____.

8. You do not want to _____ stung by a _____.

9. The racecar driver had a _____ in memory and couldn't remember how many _____ he had completed.

10. The hospital was extremely busy, so the _____ had to have _____.

Homophone Worksheet 3.9 – Answer Sheet

1. The student who could remember the value of pi to the most decimal places would be rewarded with a slice of pie.

2. She knew that the new movie was due to come out this weekend.

3. He was really bored with playing the same board games all the time.

4. The campers started to feel tense as it was getting dark and they still hadn't put up their tents.

5. He decided that this weekend he would chop up some wood for their log fire.

6. The butcher went to meet the farmer from whom he buys his meat.

7. The athlete managed to leap a distance of 30 feet in the long jump which was a world record feat.

8. You do not want to be stung by a bee.

9. The racecar driver had a lapse in memory and couldn't remember how many laps he had completed.

10. The hospital was extremely busy, so the patients had to have patience.